

Training Opportunities for Leicestershire Play and Leisure Organisations.

Increase your skills and confidence with the inclusion of children with Autism or ADHD in your setting with these inspirational half day workshops delivered by 'Inspired Children', well known in their field for delivering entertaining, interactive thought provoking training.

'Supporting Children with Autism in Play and Leisure'

Autistic children experience difficulties with communication and social interactions which can lead to them becoming socially isolated from their peers with low levels of participation in community activities and groups. Using vibrant practical interactive experiences and case studies of real life stories of real children, this workshop will raise your awareness and understanding of Autism; explore how to create an Autism friendly environment and offer innovative approaches and strategies for successful inclusion.

Thursday March 7th 6-9pm, County Scout Headquarters, Blaby
Saturday March 16th 9am -12, George Ward Centre, Barwell
£5 per delegate

'Supporting Children with ADHD in Play and Leisure'

Difficulties from Attention Deficit Hyperactive Disorder such as inattentiveness, hyperactivity and impulsiveness can lead to the label of a 'naughty' child leading to exclusions from community activities and groups. Using vibrant practical interactive experiences and case studies of real life stories of real children, this workshop will raise your awareness and understanding of ADHD and the difficulties that may be experienced, with a series of innovative approaches and strategies for successful inclusion.

Thursday February 28th 6-9pm, Melton Carnegie Museum
Saturday March 30th 9am-12, Quorn Grange Hotel
£5 per delegate
